

JUDGE KING RETURNS

Buies Himself With the Present Senatorial Situation.

PUBLIC BUILDING BILL

WILL CERTAINLY PASS THE HOUSE AFTER THE RECESS.

Judge King says the Spanish Treaty will be ratified and the Nicaragua Canal Bill passed—Judge Powers Well Pleased With His Prospects—Political Notes.

Congressman King returned yesterday from Washington for the holidays. He arrived by the afternoon train, and went directly to his home. In the evening he came down town and busied himself in getting posted on the senatorial situation. He said, he being away, he had not had the opportunity to keep personally in touch with developments which may have taken place, and had nothing to say about the matter at present.

Regarding legislation in Washington, Mr. King said, the bill making appropriation for a government building in Salt Lake would be reported favorably to the house of representatives by the committee immediately after the holidays and the prospect for its being passed is excellent. The bill has already passed the senate.

The peace treaty with Spain will undoubtedly be ratified, Mr. King thinks, before congress adjourns. The indications are that the Nicaragua canal bill will also pass, but Mr. King does not approve of the bill in its present form. Judge King is of the opinion that there will be an extra session of congress to carry out the public building bill, which is not being passed this session.

Trade generally is very good in Pennsylvania and some other eastern states, owing partly, Judge King says, to the impetus incidental to the purchase of munitions of war, and the consequent distribution of large sums of money.

Powers is Well Pleased. Judge Powers has returned from Provo, where he was trying a law case. He is feeling quite jubilant regarding his senatorial prospects in fact, he was particularly well pleased, having received assurances of support from some quarters which he did not expect it, and, in fact, had not solicited it.

Political Notes. State Senator A. O. Smoot returned to his home yesterday.

State Senator John Evans is in town, and was sought after by the various senatorial aspirants.

Hon. P. L. Williams is mentioned as the probable successor of Nat McMillan as member of the board of education.

TOWN TALK. Yesterday's clearness was $24.75, as compared with $25.25 for the same day of last year.

Ten cents a copy will be paid at The Herald counting room for one copy of the Weekly of Dec. 17, 1937, and April 25, 1938.

The Coen, Wagon & Machine company yesterday sent out its forty-eighth issue of a Christmas remembrance.

W. R. Baldwin of the west side fire department will give a Christmas party today at his home, 1001 West 10th St., at 7 p. m.

The employees of City Treasurer Morris office yesterday accepted their Christmas remembrance, which was a small box containing a Christmas card and a small gift.

The state board of trustees of the Orphan's home today announced that any persons desiring to send Christmas presents to the children may leave them at the office of Mrs. Ferdinand Dickert, 241 South Main street.

Miss morning at 10 o'clock. Mr. A. H. H. of the high school assembly room, will pay the 20 school teachers, principals and principals of the city schools for the three weeks ended yesterday. The Christmas payroll aggregates about $10,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Rulon S. Wells and daughter will arrive from New York this afternoon. Mr. Wells has been in New York for a half year, presiding over the European missions of the Mormon church, and his wife and daughter went to New York to meet him.

Three more applications for appointment as assistant supervisors of the city police were filed yesterday with the clerk of the board of police, making eighteen applications in all. The latest applicants are H. W. B. King and James A. Smith of Ogden and C. H. Gordon of Indianapolis.

The state board of examiners yesterday accepted from A. M. Probst 100 copies of his history of the state of Utah, and ordered the payment of the appropriation of $100 therefor, under the public school fund.

Probst's book, which is a history of the state of Utah, is a very interesting and valuable work, and is well worth the price of $1.00.

Mr. Arthur Hale died at St. Mark's hospital yesterday afternoon. He was 74 years of age, and had been ill for several weeks.

A small plane broke out at Dr. W. F. Anderson's residence, 25 Second East, at a quarter of 7 yesterday morning. The plane was a small biplane, and was flying over the city.

The plane was seen by several persons, and it was reported that it was flying at a high altitude. The plane was seen for about five minutes, and then disappeared.

The plane was seen by several persons, and it was reported that it was flying at a high altitude. The plane was seen for about five minutes, and then disappeared.

The plane was seen by several persons, and it was reported that it was flying at a high altitude. The plane was seen for about five minutes, and then disappeared.

The plane was seen by several persons, and it was reported that it was flying at a high altitude. The plane was seen for about five minutes, and then disappeared.

The plane was seen by several persons, and it was reported that it was flying at a high altitude. The plane was seen for about five minutes, and then disappeared.

The plane was seen by several persons, and it was reported that it was flying at a high altitude. The plane was seen for about five minutes, and then disappeared.

The plane was seen by several persons, and it was reported that it was flying at a high altitude. The plane was seen for about five minutes, and then disappeared.

The plane was seen by several persons, and it was reported that it was flying at a high altitude. The plane was seen for about five minutes, and then disappeared.

The plane was seen by several persons, and it was reported that it was flying at a high altitude. The plane was seen for about five minutes, and then disappeared.

The plane was seen by several persons, and it was reported that it was flying at a high altitude. The plane was seen for about five minutes, and then disappeared.

The plane was seen by several persons, and it was reported that it was flying at a high altitude. The plane was seen for about five minutes, and then disappeared.

The plane was seen by several persons, and it was reported that it was flying at a high altitude. The plane was seen for about five minutes, and then disappeared.

The plane was seen by several persons, and it was reported that it was flying at a high altitude. The plane was seen for about five minutes, and then disappeared.

BIG REAL ESTATE DEAL CLOSED

HON. THOS. KEARNS PAYS OVER $85,000 CASE.

Money Goes to the Heirs of the Pixon Estate For the Purchase of Main Street Property.

The nine heirs of the late Robert Pixon were glad yesterday afternoon receiving $85,000 in cash from Thomas Kearns in payment of their business property on Main street, the sale of which was agreed to a week ago through the efforts of Stephen H. Lynch, who himself picks up as commission on the deal a nice little sum of Christmas money. From the warranty deed placed on record yesterday it appears that Elizabeth, Robert, William, Joseph C. Smith, Jr., and Oliver Pixon, Elizabeth P. Harter and Sarah P. Wheeler are the fortunate sellers of the eighty-five feet of frontage at 120 to 125 South Main street.

The areas described in the deed of conveyance are 56x105 feet, 56x115 feet north of the alley at the rear and a strip 8 inches by 45 feet along the alley, also at the rear.

There were $85,000 worth of war revenue stamps on the warranty deed, and in addition there was a quit claim deed from S. P. Teasdale to Thomas Kearns for the same property. The deed was recorded yesterday in the county clerk's office, and the consideration expressed in it being $1. The sellers regard Mr. Kearns as a Santa Claus, but when he erects the proposed sky-scraper business block on the site of his purchase many more will partake of his benefactions.

IN THE SOCIAL REALM

The A. O. U. W. hall at Christiansen's last evening was attended by about fifty couples, a jolly set, who danced until morning and felt more than ready for their attendance. The following gentlemen constituted the committee: Mr. S. P. Smith, G. H. Bachman, J. W. Peterson, John Alms, A. W. Galtier, and others.

The dance at the Old Fellows' fair was not largely attended last evening, the cold weather and the fact that the luck went out of the fair.

Beginning Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock there will be a carnival and fair held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley, which will continue for three days.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

The carnival will continue for three days and will consist of a variety of games, and will be held at the Central school building in Sugar House valley.

FOUGHT WITH A KNIFE

Joe Plant Runs Amuck In the Klondike Saloon.

SEVERAL MEN SLASHED

PLANT OVERCOME AND GIVEN A FRIGHTFUL BEATING.

All the Parties to the Affair Arrested—Montana Sheriff Arrives For "Tod" McClammy—An Alleged Case of Robbery—A Snelter Man Loses His Check.

For a well-pounded and bloody face, Joe Plant, an Italian, presented a No. 1 appearance when he emerged from a drunken fight when he emerged from a drunken fight when he emerged from a drunken fight.

Plant was a noted character. He was one of the oldest henchmen in this city, and acquired a rather unsavory reputation by being detected in many questionable affairs. He was arrested many times. He was the hero of a hundred fights, although he never won any more than the ordinary man.

He left this city some months ago, believing that Butte would be a better place for him, but he was arrested by the police of Butte, and was sent back to Salt Lake City.

With the death of Plant, the reign of Ed Callahan, who occurred in 1931, is recalled, and with it the recollection that all the suspected characters, but one remained in the city.

Her husband, "Coyote Dick" Edwards, Joe Hill, and Larkin and George, the bartender at the saloon on Franklin avenue, opposite Lott's house, have all gone. Miner died soon after, and while Lott was under arrest, "Coyote Dick" died in Texas while awaiting sentence of death for murder.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

CAL KEANS NO MORE

Noted Character Dies of Alcoholism and Pneumonia.

THE CALLAHAN MURDER

HE FIGURED EXTENSIVELY IN THAT MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR.

Now All the Characters Have Died Except Lottie Miner—Josie Hill, Murdered; Larkin, Hung; Miner, Died; Coyote Dick, Expired In Jail; Bartender, Fell Down Shaft.

Cal Dean, who for many years was a familiar figure on the streets of this city, is dead. He drew his last breath a short time ago in Butte, alcoholism and pneumonia being the cause of his death.

Dean was a noted character. He was one of the oldest henchmen in this city, and acquired a rather unsavory reputation by being detected in many questionable affairs. He was arrested many times. He was the hero of a hundred fights, although he never won any more than the ordinary man.

He left this city some months ago, believing that Butte would be a better place for him, but he was arrested by the police of Butte, and was sent back to Salt Lake City.

With the death of Dean, the reign of Ed Callahan, who occurred in 1931, is recalled, and with it the recollection that all the suspected characters, but one remained in the city.

Her husband, "Coyote Dick" Edwards, Joe Hill, and Larkin and George, the bartender at the saloon on Franklin avenue, opposite Lott's house, have all gone. Miner died soon after, and while Lott was under arrest, "Coyote Dick" died in Texas while awaiting sentence of death for murder.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

Joe Hill was killed by his partner, Ed Callahan, who was under arrest, and the bartender died of a heart attack.

CITY'S WATER RIGHTS

Possession of Jordan River Share Will Be Kept.

FORESTALLING LAMSON

Watermaster Seddon Executes Council's Order.

Canal Carries the Water So the Power Plant Can't Get It—Inevitable Litigation Will Soon Commence—Of Great Concern to the City, But Lamson Smiles Complacently.

Watermaster Seddon has complied with the order of the city council, made Tuesday evening, to immediately turn the city's share of the Jordan river into the canal, so as to forestall possession by the Lamson electric power plant, and consequent probable impairment of the city's rights. The power plant will be ready to use the water about the first of the year for generating electric power for the mines and mills at Dingham and Mesquite, and prompt action on the city's part was deemed imperative.

The watermaster was engaged Wednesday morning by the city attorney, and on Thursday he was prepared to act. The problem that at once presented itself was what might happen during this freezing weather if it were attempted to keep water running in the canal, whose down grade is so small as to be scarcely perceptible. It would be both preposterous and hazardous to attempt to turn the canal water into the city, or even half way, but a solution of the problem was found in an arrangement to turn the water back into the river at a point below where it would be serviceable to the power plant.

Late Thursday afternoon Watermaster Seddon completed the diversion of the city's sixth share of the Jordan river into the canal. The only resistance encountered was in the ice. Of course, the watermaster, in the execution of the council's order, was not to be deterred by the amount of water taken and claimed by the city. There is, not, and never has been any means of measuring the amount of water in the Jordan. If the canal at the intake does not carry all the city's water the municipality does not get its share, which has cost the city $100,000 a year, and which right is yearly becoming more valuable.

The information of what Watermaster Seddon accomplished yesterday was obtained. The official himself was not to be found yesterday in his accustomed places, and his clerks had returned to work. The city's share of the Jordan river was in the ice. Of course, the watermaster, in the execution of the council's order, was not to be deterred by the amount of water taken and claimed by the city. There is, not, and never has been any means of measuring the amount of water in the Jordan. If the canal at the intake does not carry all the city's water the municipality does not get its share, which has cost the city $100,000 a year, and which right is yearly becoming more valuable.

The information of what Watermaster Seddon accomplished yesterday was obtained. The official himself was not to be found yesterday in his accustomed places, and his clerks had returned to work. The city's share of the Jordan river was in the ice. Of course, the watermaster, in the execution of the council's order, was not to be deterred by the amount of water taken and claimed by the city. There is, not, and never has been any means of measuring the amount of water in the Jordan. If the canal at the intake does not carry all the city's water the municipality does not get its share, which has cost the city $100,000 a year, and which right is yearly becoming more valuable.

The information of what Watermaster Seddon accomplished yesterday was obtained. The official himself was not to be found yesterday in his accustomed places, and his clerks had returned to work. The city's share of the Jordan river was in the ice. Of course, the watermaster, in the execution of the council's order, was not to be deterred by the amount of water taken and claimed by the city. There is, not, and never has been any means of measuring the amount of water in the Jordan. If the canal at the intake does not carry all the city's water the municipality does not get its share, which has cost the city $100,000 a year, and which right is yearly becoming more valuable.

The information of what Watermaster Seddon accomplished yesterday was obtained. The official himself was not to be found yesterday in his accustomed places, and his clerks had returned to work. The city's share of the Jordan river was in the ice. Of course, the watermaster, in the execution of the council's order, was not to be deterred by the amount of water taken and claimed by the city. There is, not, and never has been any means of measuring the amount of water in the Jordan. If the canal at the intake does not carry all the city's water the municipality does not get its share, which has cost the city $100,000 a year, and which right is yearly becoming more valuable.

The information of what Watermaster Seddon accomplished yesterday was obtained. The official himself was not to be found yesterday in his accustomed places, and his clerks had returned to work. The city's share of the Jordan river was in the ice. Of course, the watermaster, in the execution of the council's order, was not to be deterred by the amount of water taken and claimed by the city. There is, not, and never has been any means of measuring the amount of water in the Jordan. If the canal at the intake does not carry all the city's water the municipality does not get its share, which has cost the city $100,000 a year, and which right is yearly becoming more valuable.